

Shall we be subject to two or three giant media outlets that control what we see and hear?...I hope not. Neighborhood radio and television have a place in the fabric of this nation.